November 14th 2017: Mack McLarty on Effective Governing

We are joined by the White House Chief of Staff in the Clinton Administration, the man responsible for a deficit reduction program which produced one of the most impressive Federal surpluses in our country's history, Mr. Mack McLarty. Listen in as we discuss the new tax plan, the bipartisan Alexander Murray healthcare fix, and the similarities between President Clinton and Trump's first 10 months in office. He has some valuable insights on how Trump can work more efficiently.
