December 5th 2017: What is happening to NYC retail stores?

Manhattan retail rents have slid into their deepest and longest slump in 17 years, a new report confirms — with Soho rents slashed by more than a third since their 2015 peak. In what some have dubbed a “retail apocalypse,” rents have skidded for two years throughout most of Manhattan’s shopping districts, as a massive shift to online shopping has tanked demand for pricey storefronts, according to a new reports. Also at this hour: With thoughts of the holidays and gift giving in your head, showing your apartment may be the last thing on your mind during this holiday season. Now, consideri
