Innovating Leadership, Co-Creating Our Future

Tuesday at 11 AM Pacific

July 10th 2018: Who is really in Control?

Neuroscience - Re-imagining Leadership

Gary and Maureen talk about the leadership "operating systems" people are working with based on our brain programming and our level of conscious awareness of this operating system. When we increase our awareness, we can reprogram this operating system to move beyond the survival and ego based system to a more deliberate, service based, long term success oriented system. In our current time with increasing complexity and challenge, we as leaders need to commit to updating this operating system to ensure future generations thrive. This updating is something that must be done by each leader –
