Dan Young

Dan Young is an entrepreneur, investor and mentor working to create a million millionaires across the globe. Over 20 years ago, he founded PC Laptops, a technology and computer company that he built from the ground up. After losing money in his first year, he committed himself fully to his business, soliciting the advice of mentors and applying a series of disciplined steps to turn the business around. The following year, he made over a million dollars in revenue and PC Laptops was listed among INC 500s fastest growing companies. His success in cracking the millionaire code inspired him to help and mentor others in achieving the same financial freedom. Now, hes breaking down what it takes wi
