August 2nd 2018: When MOM is a MONSTER

This week we take a look at cases where mothers sell (or allegedly exploit) their children. AND, we look at cases where men did not purchase the child, but, instead, reported it. We also examine cases of sex trafficking & sexual abuse by mothers because they were addicted to drugs, were sex traffickers working with male partners, used social media apps like KIK, Meetme and Snap Money, or were trying to please a boyfriend. It is important to understand the dynamics of these cases so they can be recognized and reported if they are happening around you. It is also important to recognize t
