October 17th 2018: This the Patient Whisperers and how to use Verbal Medicine

Marc Sacco and Roger Woods are two Nurses that work in trauma wards and have combined their wide knowledge of Hypnosis with the medical training they already have- to produce astounding results. They call this verbal medicine It is known that using Hypnosis is high stress situations is a huge benefit- for the patient, and to the doctors. The patient becomes calmer and less anxious - less drugs need to used, and less time is needed to treat and to heal. For the doctors and staff -a stress free patient (and family) makes for a more productive and happier work environment. And th
