January 10th 2019: CHOOSING TO BE FREE OF SELF-CONDEMNATION

Researchers will tell you that 70% of victims of sex trafficking have been previously sexually exploited. These are kids that often struggle with self-worth and self-condemnation. Working in this field for over ten years, I have often searched for solutions on how to provide prevention and intervention education for teens and parents so our precious kids do not end up being violated and become easy targets for sex trafficking. Having dealt with hundreds of parents of trafficking and sextortion victims tells me that it is critical that parents work through their own emotional traumas from ch
