Good Grief with Cheryl Jones
Wednesday at 2 PM Pacific
January 23rd 2019: It Ends With Us

The Savages were a happy family with four boys. The older two were 18 and 19, one a year into college and the other just graduating from high school. Then they made a fateful error, mixing prescription drugs with alcohol. In a flash, Nick and Jack were dead, leaving their family in an unimaginable grief. Driven to prevent a similar tragedy in other families, the 525 Foundation was established. Through education and information the foundation makes an impact on the opioid epidemic while educating other teens about the dangers. Nick and Jack's mom, Becky, is passionate about saving other familie
