March 22nd 2019: Moving forward

Most of the time in our lives, we can get comfortable and very settled in what we do. What would happens when a new opportunity or situation presents itself or you are in routine and now you are not. Then what? When my son with autism wanted his own place, I had to face the letting go and change of routine. When I was a Flight Attendant, my mother-in-law was sick and I left my job to take full time care of her. Life has a way of moving you forward into the next unexpected. How do you embrace the change?
