July 15th 2019: Ruby Roxx - model, activist, writer.

Today we chat with Ruby Roxx - she has been a model for nearly 13 years, and in the past has worked as a chef, event planner, preschool teacher and special needs aide. Ruby is open about her struggles with chronic depression and anxiety and hopes to help break down the stigma against mental health, by sharing her experiences and feelings, through speaking at public events, writing articles and blog posts, and simply being 100% true and real on social media at all times. Ruby has been featured on Good Morning America, The Huffington Post, Buzz Feed, and many other news outlets for her work fig

Featured Guest

Ruby Roxx

Ruby Roxx is a Vancouver BC born and raised model, advocate, and writer. She is passionate about helping people learn to love and accept themselves in all stages of their life. She is a firm believer that we are all beautiful in our own ways, and what makes us unique is what makes us so special. She has a love for lingerie, art, music, the ocean, cooking, travelling, and spending time with her friends, family, and French Bulldog "Cash" (named after Johnny).
