August 30th 2019: Fake News and the Future of Journalism

Since the beginning of journalism the various reporters biases and opinions have always crept into in their reporting. But now we are confronted by something more concerning and even baffling, which is generally labeled as Fake News. How can we rely upon the information we receive from the media? How can we tell what is true or not true? Our guest Rick Reiff, who is a long-time and award-winning journalist and broadcaster, joins us and delves into this confounding area in depth. So what is the future of journalism? Who checks the fact-checkers? How can journalists be gatekeepers when inc
