EVERY TUESDAY
4:00 PM ET (1:00 PM PT)

Frankly Speaking About Cancer with the Cancer Support Community
Tuesdays at 1 PM Pacific
October 22nd 2019: A conversation with inventor and cancer survivor Efrat Roman

Efrat Roman's experience living with the challenges of a breast cancer diagnosis lead her to business ideas that she has developed to make the world a better place for women facing the same diagnosis. Fueled by her own experience and inspired by the women she has met along her journey, Efrat is an unapologetic entrepreneur—survivorpreneur if you will. Her latest project is EZbra®, the first and only post-op disposable compression bra designed to improve the recovery experience from any breast surgery.
