The symbolic imagery of nature represents both healthy and destructive forms. Distressing mother dream imagery—the essence of a person's unresolved interactions with their personal mother—commonly occurs. The inseparable unity with the personal mother may strengthen, producing the only experience of wholeness a person may ever encounter. Giving way to something different, the destructive impulses constellated by such imagery may provide glorious opportunities for healing. The images evoked carry a personal sense of fate. Such imagery may represent the inner mother figure of a person's own psyc
