June 24th 2009: Here's $19 Billion, now make healthcare IT work!

IT budgets in Healthcare have always been too meager. Finally there's more money! But while IT leaders in healthcare now have a whopping $19 Billion reward, they face the equally daunting task of computerizing medical records. The problem of updating medical records to digital has been a chronic issue for years. In addition to money, what exactly does IT leadership need to make this work?
