August 17th 2009: How to Recover from any Financial Setback

Karen McCall has recovered from many a financial setback herself and in this interview she shows you how to do the same. Her Financial Recovery Institute, based in Petaluma California, trains financial advisors on how to help their clients deal with job loss, overwhelming debts and bankruptcy. In this interview, Karen describes the steps you should take to head off these problems and how to deal with them if you have them. She also refers to her Moneyminder System to help you understand how your upbringing affects your money decisions today and how you can diagnose financial behaviors that can
