September 21st 2009: How to get Rich Slowly but surely

JD Roth has had a fascinating path in life. He started as an average American with loads of credit card and other debts and no savings. He decided he wanted to change the way he lived and learned everything he could about personal finance and transformed his life. Now he is one of the most popular bloggers on personal finance on the Internet at his site www.getrichslowly.com and has a following of 70,000 subscribers. In this interview he will describe what steps he took to turn his life around and what you can do to improve your personal financial condition in a major way.
