January 6th 2010: Special Encore Presentation: Andrew Neve – “The Art of Music and
Technological Dynamics shaping the Future of Artists and the Listening Public.”

The world of music has been impacted by technology in recent years bringing both detrimental and beneficial implications to artists and the listening public. Andrew Neve an established composer and musician for over 25 years has enjoyed a career working with the British Broadcasting Corporation among other notable organizations. The program explores the mindset of the artist and a changing paradigm of those generations now seeking other alternatives to music in their everyday lives.
