January 25th 2010: Thriving in a Volatile
Investment world

Axel Merk, a well known economist and money manager of Merk Mutual funds, explains in this interview what has caused the current economic crisis and what you as an investor should do to thrive in it instead of being victimized by it. Merk's funds allow investors to profit if the value of the US dollar falls, and he discusses this and many other strategies that will allow you to grow your wealth in these times when many others are losing the value of their assets.
