While most fans don't believe that athletes are anything more than weekly entertainment, there are those that take their gifts and talents much more seriously. How often do you hear about the off the field antics of athletes? While Ben Roethlisberger is on every major news syndicate, what you are not hearing is about those players who do good for humanity, just because. Do the fans only care about controversy or are they interested in the greater good? The announcement of Donovan McNabb's trade shows, this past Easter, just how strong The NFL is, by grandstanding Jesus and MLB's Opening Day! W

Featured Guest

George Foster

George Foster is a native of Macon, Georgia. There, he was a graduate of Southeast High School. Although he had always had a great love for sports, it was at Southeast where he began to blossom into the athlete that he is today. He was a member of the Football, Basketball, and Track team during his 4 years at Southeast.
