August 12th 2010: Human Trafficking: Children for Sale

What is happening to our children? Children are being bought, sold and smuggled right under our noses - - right here in the United States, maybe right in your own neighborhood. Sometimes it is even the parents who profit. It is a frightening thought. Usually for sexual gratification, it is often organized by mob-like networks and children are lured by some enticing pretext and transported to large convention cities. The demand is everywhere. Tune in to hear Human Trafficking expert Dottie Laster report on this horrific but highly lucrative crime. Private investigators frequently get involve
