May 31st 2011: Educating the Heart of the Child

If your life or livelihood touches children, please tune in this Tuesday for a special program "Educating the Heart of the Child." We will be focusing on the unique and highly regarded teaching methods of the legendary Maria Montessori. Our special guest for this informative presentation will be Montessori expert and teacher certification master, Mary Ellen Maunz. Truth is, traditional systems of education are failing, and our children deserve better. The methods developed by Maria Montessori are simple, yet profound, beginning with the realization that education is a release from within,
