PI's Declassified!
Thursday at 9 AM Pacific
March 1st 2012: Child Retrieval from Parental Abductions

Per capita, Australia has the highest rate of parental abduction in the world with over 100 children abducted by the non-custodian parent each year. British officials report one British child abducted every two days. The United States Department of Justice reports non-custodial parents are responsible for kidnapping hundreds of children every year. Often it is complicated when the child is removed from their home country. Australian Private Investigator Keith Schafferius has dedicated his career to retrieving abducted children from all over the world and returning them to their court-ordered c
