Take Responsibility for Their Finances

Our featured guest today, Best Selling author and lifestyle coach Holli Rovenger, is on a mission: based on her own personal experience and extensive research, she has written a book designed to help educate women on how to become financially savvy and prepared. "Why do so many women become so financially vulnerable? I pondered this question because I was one of these statistics. Holli decided to take control of her life and become a different kind of statistic: A Winner – one who takes adversity and turns it into success – and shares that with women everywhere. "The Simple and Sassy Gu
