May 7th 2012: Special Encore Presentation:
Inspiring People to Care About the Planet:
Delivering on National Geographic Society's Mission with EVP Terry Garcia

"Some believe the golden age of exploration is behind us. On the contrary, I believe we are at the beginning of our greatest age of exploration," commented Terry Garcia in a recent interview. Since joining National Geographic Society more than a dozen years ago, Garcia has implemented a vision of exploration that has revitalized the Society's mission programs and defined exploration in the broadest sense. Responsible for the Society's core mission programs, which support and manage more than 400 scientific field research, conservation and exploration projects annually, Garcia is in a unique po
