November 14th 2012: eDiscovery – Costs, Risks, and Remedy

When it comes to the exploding costs and risks of litigation that are a result of the deluge of electronic information available, a counsel general's office follows 3 mandates: increase efficiency, reduce costs, and mitigate risks. How severe are the problems of inefficiency, high costs, and risk? How are these problems growing or changing? How does a corporate general counsel's office address them?
