March 21st 2013: Are Poor Presentation Skills Hurting You? Part 2

This week's show will be a continuation of the show from last week. We will continue to discuss, strategies, tips and techniques to elevate your presentation skills to win more sales and business opportunities now! A national survey conducted by USA Today revealed that most Americans feared speaking before a group of people more than they feared death. Most people fear speaking to a group of strangers and many others have a greater fear of speaking to a group of their peers. The irony is that public speaking is a necessity to sales, business, and many other professionals. Not being prof
