Access Consciousness Presents Beyond Saying Thank You Archives Available

May 7th 2013: Are you good at working hard and an expert at dismissing ease and joy?

Joy and ease are one of the least valuable products in this reality. Most people would rather make themselves slaves to the lives they think they are supposed to be having and take pride in making their lives hard. "Money does not come easy, relationships are hard work..." Really? What are you trying to prove? How much are you willing to change your points of view? What is the value of living your life as hard and miserable as everybody else? Would you like to consider a different possibility? The only thing in life that is good when it is hard is a penis or your morning eggs. Come and
