July 14th 2011: The Pathway to Love

More than 50 percent of all marriages in America end in divorce. Why do so many couples fail at staying together? Social forces and moral factors aside, the answer comes down to a simple fact: relationships are complicated. Couples muddle through them without much guidance, then feel dismayed and betrayed when they disappoint. Imagine how much more successful and satisfying relationships would be if couples had a road map to follow, with detours on resolving differences and strengthening common bonds. Imagine how much happier countless people would be if they had clear warning signs to help th
