July 17th 2013: Love Arising!

Like many Sebastian Dudley's early years were filled with pain and struggle. As a young adult, he made a choice to be happy and find inner peace. After years of seeking and trying out a variety of paths and teachings, he came to the realization that all there is – is now and the single most important form of love is self-love. The seeking stopped and Sebastian gradually began to experience deeper and deeper levels of self-love and inner peace. Then on a fateful day in December 2010, Sebastian met Panache Desai and at that divine appointment he surrendered completely to himself. Since that da

Sebastian Dudley

December 2010, Sebastian Dudley showed up for an appointment with destiny and I was there to bear witness. The day he walked into the room with Panache Desai, and one hundred plus others, Sebastian was done. After years of searching, the seeking was over. He was deeply in love with himself and totally accepting of what is. He was living and experiencing life one moment at a time. He was embracing the joy and the sorrow in equal measure. On that day he opened himself up fully and received all there was to be received, like he did in every other moment in his life. The result was miraculous and he would never be the same. What emerged was pure unconditional love in form. Sebastian is a way sho
