July 30th 2013: Family Caregiving and Retirement: Challenges, Concerns and Chances

Fred Ryall is an estate practitioner who works with families with special-needs children. He shares his personal story, explains how he came to be involved with family caregivers and their retirement, and describes his work and success in helping family caregivers. He discusses the retirement challenges of the family caregivers he supports. He highlights the health conditions of loved ones that are most worrying and challenging for family caregivers concerned about what will happen to their loved ones after they, the family caregivers, die. He discusses family caregivers' retirement chances in
