February 24th 2014: Making Your Best Moves in a Volatile Bond Market

Most investors think of the bond market as a stable and reliable source of regular income. But the bond market has changed dramatically in recent years, and in this interview, Simon Lack, president of SL Advisors and author of Bonds Are Not Forever: The Crisis Facing Fixed Income Investors, explains how. He also describes what you, as a fixed income investor, should do to secure a regular income without subjecting yourself to too much volatility in the value of your portfolio. In his book, Lack details how the trends of exploding debt taken on by governments, individuals and companies has crea
