Good Grief with Cheryl Jones
Wednesday at 2 PM Pacific
August 20th 2014: Tender

What would happen if a community began to work towards taking back the responsibility for burying its members? In an industrial town in Australia, residents are working towards just that! They want the chance to honor their grief and their love by owning the process of burial from start to finish by creating a non-profit to deliver funeral services to the community. Lynette Wallworth has created a documentary chronicling the start of this enterprise. Listen to what touched her, what made this project more than just an idea for the people involved, and discover what made everyone involved Tende
