Presentation: Fighting Fraud: Predictive Technology to the Rescue? Part 3

The buzz: Fraud. As hard as you work to implement effective anti-fraud processes, voracious and savvy fraudsters are working even harder, and perhaps smarter, to thwart you. Good news! Predictive analytics technology can help you understand emerging fraud patterns and adapt against new types of attack, but only if you use the tools effectively. What will it take for your leadership to make this a priority? The experts speak. Derek Snidauf, Deloitte: "The beginning is the most important part of the work" (Plato). Michael P Cangemi, Cangemi Company: "The uninspected (inevitably) deteriorat
