Sports might not be considered to the end all be all, but it's definitely something that builds camaraderie and the lessons learned through competition can prepare participants for life ahead. Many of the individuals who are currently active on any level of sports, have been inspired by someone who took a vested interest in their development. On today's show we discuss the maturation process of a NFL QuarterBack with eight year veteran Jay Fiedler. Fiedler also explains how he uses his Sports Academy to build Character, Accountability and Responsibilities into the future NFL stars of tomorrow.
