August 10th 2016: First Show!

This is the first show for RISE Radio. Randy will set the stage for the show and answer key questions, such as, "Who am I?" and "Why am I here?" The intention of this show and all shows is to empower, inspire, and educate you, the audience. The direction of the show will depend on the feedback from listeners. Randy wants to know what you want to hear about, who you want to hear from, and how we can help empower you to live a happier and healthier life. Our first guest is Doug Everhart, the Director of Student Wellness & Health Promotion at University of California-Irvine. Doug is a 26 year

Doug Everhart

Doug Everhart has a B.S. in Engineering and a M.A. (Education/Counseling), both from the University of Redlands. He began his student affairs career at his alma mater with positions in housing, career development, recreation, Greek life and student activities. He eventually found his passion in substance abuse prevention, and spent eight years starting and building a program. In 1998, he was hired as a Health Educator at UC Riverside to focus on substance abuse and sexual health, as well as to build a peer education program. During his 12 years at UCR, he built a comprehensive health education program and a nationally acclaimed peer education program. His expertise and experience has also ea
