June 28th 2017: What is Wrong with Leadership Training for Sustainable Success?

There is the knowledge of leadership and then actually how it is applied in a real world environment. Everyone talks about what it takes to be an effective leader but not the actual process to become one in real life. Joshua Spodek discusses real world exercises how existing leaders or those aspiring to be one can truly have sustainable success at the next level by actually doing and going through the process rather than just knowing it. Join us to gain valuable insight how a progression of exercises through practice is a game changer for positive change when it comes to taking leadership to
