March 5th 2015: The Blood Sweat and Tears of Leadership with Jan Rutherford

Leadership and organizations that focus on developing great leaders have been proven to have better business results and cultures of high performance. Leadership is truly the force multiplier of any organization. But having great leaders and being a great leader does not come without a lot of "blood, sweat and tears." Being a leader is a privilege. Leadership is about helping others connect the dots and master their own destiny. Jan Rutherford, a proven leader, educator and author of "The Littlest Green Beret: On Self-Reliant Leadership," will be joining me for a lively discussion of
